PO 87 9/7/75

Hughes Answers Questions

ELKO, Nev.—A document bearing the signature of billionaire Howard R. Hughes has been submitted to the district court, paving the way for resumption of a suit by Las Vegas publisher Hank Greenspun against Hughes' Summa Corp.

District Court Judge Joseph McDaniel said Friday the document sent from the Bahamas, where Hughes resides, contained a series of answers by Hughes to written questions which had been submitted earlier by Greenspun attorneys.

Last March a trial was halted in its second day when lawyers for Greenspun challenged in Nevada Supreme Court the authenticity of an earlier written response by Hughes to certain questions. The Supreme court told the local court to settle the problems "in orderly and deliberate fashion" and resume the trial.